Eligibility for Online White Card Training

As of July 2019 new conditions from WorkSafe WA will affect your eligibility to complete the White Card course online. Learners enrolled in the White Card course before July 19th 2019 will be given until 06/09/2019 to complete their full White Card course in accordance with WorkSafe WA’s teach out provisions. Learners who do not complete their course in time and are not eligible to re-enroll under the new conditions will not be offered a refund.

TAS White Cards

Learners completing the TAS White Card course online will be provided with a Statement of Attainment only upon completion. In order to receive a TAS White Card the learner will need to visit a Service Tasmania Shop to lodge their application.

To lodge an application the learner will need to take the following documentation to a Service Tasmania Shop and pay the appropriate fee:

- a completed application form
- a copy of the Statement of Attainment (certificate) confirming the successful completion of the course. This must include your name, RTO number, date of issue and training unit (CPCCWHS1001)
- your evidence of identity documents

EOT will provide you with the application form and the Statement of Attainment (certificate) upon successful completion of all the course requirements.

An application for a construction induction card must be made within 60 days after the issue of the training certificate. Service Tasmania will review the documentation and forward it to WorkSafe for processing. If you do not receive your card within 60 days from lodgement, you will need to contact WorkSafe.

WA White Cards

In order to complete the White Card course online and receive a WA White Card you must be located in WA at the time you complete the assessments. We must obtain evidence that learners were located in Western Australia at the time of the assessment for this course.

Before being issued with a WA White Card learners will be required to provide one of the following types of evidence:

- Current Western Australian Driver’s Licence; or
- Current Western Australian learner driver’s permit; or
- Current Western Australian Student Identification; or
- Recent utilities invoice with a Western Australia address and the name of the person to whom the CIT card will be issued; or
- Western Australian Construction Industry Training Fund payment eligibility; or
- Western Australian postal address to which the CIT card is to be posted.

Learners can submit this easily by uploading a good quality photo or scan of their document to their EOT account.
QLD White Cards
To receive a QLD White Card for online White Card training learners must reside in QLD and be at least 100km away from the an RTO offering the White Card course face to face. According to the Queensland Office of Industrial Relations Terms and Conditions, before any training organisation can issue a learner a QLD Construction Induction Training Card (White card) via online training, we must obtain evidence that learner resides in Queensland, and at a distance of 100 kilometres or more from any RTO offering face to face delivery of the CPCCWHS1001 (White Card) course.

Before being issued with a QLD White Card, learners will be required to provide one of the following types of evidence:

- Current Queensland Driver’s License or Learner Driver’s License with an eligible Queensland address;
- Recent utilities invoice or bank statement with an eligible Queensland address and the name of the person to whom the White Card will be issued;
- Health Care Card or Concession Card issued by Centrelink with an eligible Queensland address or;
- Photo Identification Card with an eligible Queensland address.

The address on your evidence documentation must be the same address provided to EOT to confirm your eligibility. If your address is displayed on the back of your evidence documentation you must provide front and back copies of the document.
